Lucky Skies feat. Stagecoach

Our band, Lucky Skies, all live in and around the London/Surrey area of the UK. Stagecoach Performing Arts - the biggest performing arts school in the world - began in Surrey and now has thousands of current and ex-students. Over 6,000 have been recorded singing on this new Christmas track!

The term "Stagecoach" can refer to two very different entities with separate histories: the performing arts schools and the public transport company. Stagecoach Performing Arts was founded in 1988 by Stephanie Manuel and David Sprigg, becoming a franchise six years later. The public transport company Stagecoach was founded in 1980 by Sir Brian Souter and his sister, Dame Ann Gloag.

Biography

Our band 'Lucky Skies' are experienced performing musicians. We wrote and recorded the song 'When you know it's Christmas.' It's a joint venture with Stagecoach Performing Arts to record backing vocals from a total of 6345 children - SPA students - from England, Wales, Scotland, Germany, Malta and Canada. They sent the audio files in and we mixed them on to the track! There are hundreds of SPA schools spread all across the UK & beyond. The song is a classic Xmas pop song in the traditional sense.

The video was recorded in the beautiful chapel at Royal Holloway, University of London and other locations nearby.

When you know it's Christmas

Hark Herald angels are singing,

For a stable birth,

Why's it only at this time of year,

We sing of peace on Earth?

The village green is frosty white,
The golden winter sun sinks low,
Will the forecasters get it right,
Will it really snow, proper snow?

*Holy night, starry night,
There's something special in the air tonight,
That's when you know it's Christmas,
That's when you know*

Choosing presents for the ones you love,
Sharing drinks with favourite friends,
Familiar songs play on the radio,
Another year is at an end

Singing carols in a crowded church,
The vicar beams from ear to ear,
All ye faithful came and filled the place,
He wonders where, where they've been all year

*Holy night, starry night,
There is something special going on tonight,
That's when you know it's Christmas,
That's when you know.*

Going back to 1914,
Entrenched on Christmas Day
Two armies left their guns in the hellish mud,
And they got ...together...to play

Instrumental

Wisemen, shepherds, a nativity scene,
Tea-towels on tiny heads,
Leaving carrots out for Rudolph, “Santa won’t be coming til you’re fast asleep in bed.”

*Holy night, starry night,
There is something special in the air tonight,
That’s when you know it’s Christmas,
That’s when you know.*

*Outro over C- D/F#- iF -Dm7/G
Part 1 Holy night, starry night, (loop) Part 2 There is something special in the air tonight,
That’s when you know it’s Christmas,
That’s when you know.*
